

TAG Conference

Underrepresented High Potential:

A workshop on Underrepresented Gifted and Talented Students

Friday, October 13th, 2017 Bowling Green, KY

HOSTED BY THE CENTER FOR GIFTED STUDIES, WKU

Why attend?

- Build your knowledge base
- Learn strategies
- Grow your professional network
- Expand your resources
- Sharpen your skills
- Receive a discount on CEC membership
- Take part in a drawing for a complimentary CEC membership

KEYNOTE: Serving Traditionally Under-Challenged Students through a Growth Mindset with New York Times best-selling author Mary Cay Ricci

Breakout sessions will address

- The Excellence Gap
- English-Language Learners
- 2-e students
- Urban Populations
- ADHD
- Dynamic Assessment
- Differentiation
- and more

Get more information and register online at: wku.edu/gifted/tag_fallinstitute/index.php

More than a dozen national experts in gifted education will explore issues critical to underrepresented populations.

Friday, October 13, 2017
8:30 am – 3:30 pm (CDT)
$75 for the conference
(includes lunch)
EILA credit available

Carroll Knicely
Conference Center
2355 Nashville Rd
Bowling Green, KY

gifted@wku.edu
270.745.6323